"Mother is calling" is a colossal monument which is devoted to World War II. It is located in Volgograd.

Firstly, I would recommend it to foreign tourists because it is involved into open-air exhibition. Before you go there you will see bare-foot soldier with a weapon. He looks as a defender of this woman. Next, you will see huge walls with faces and bodies on it. Mother made this thing to show that people were standing like a wall not to give the opportunity to occupy Russian area. The last thing you will see is the colossal monument. It shows us woman with a sword. She is calling everyone to save the country and world from nacist Germany and her union.

I hope you will be excited as I was.

That is all I wanted to say.
